AMENDED ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 2008-02
(TO CORRECT SCRIVENER'S ERROR)

RE: Child Restraint Offender Program

After consultation with the County Judges of the Nineteenth Judicial Circuit and as Chief Judge of the Nineteenth Judicial Circuit pursuant to Rule 2.050, Florida Rules of Judicial Administration, it is felt that in the best interest of the people of the Circuit that an educational program be established to insure proper and safe use of child restraint devices, it is therefore ordered:

1. The Child Restraint Offender Program is hereby established effective the date of this Order for the Nineteenth Judicial Circuit.
2. The following procedures shall be used to implement the Child Restraint Offender Program for the Nineteenth Judicial Circuit:
 - a. The Clerk of the Circuit Court for each County of the Circuit shall provide assistance and the alternative sentence affidavit for all persons charged with a child restraint violation.
 - b. If the offender elects to attend the program, the Clerk shall collect the statutory fines, fees, costs and affidavit preparation fee (F.S. 28.24(8)) from the offender and distribute accordingly.
 - c. In addition to the statutory fines, fees and costs, the Clerk shall collect from the offender the cost for the C.O.R.E. program and distribute accordingly.
3. The C.O.R.E. Program shall notify the Clerk of the Court of either the successful completion of the program or when the offender fails to complete the program.
4. The Clerk is authorized to D-6 the license and levy the original fines and fees on any offender who fails to complete the program.

5. This Administrative Order vacates Second Amended Administrative Order 93-06.

 DONE AND ORDERED in quadruplicate at Stuart, Martin County, Florida, this _____ day of June 2008.

WILLIAM L. ROBY
Chief Judge
