If UMC time expires, any remaining hearings will need to be reschedule.

(ST. LUCIE COUNTY)

For special set hearings in excess of 45 minutes, please e-mail a copy of the motion, proposed order for the court's review and consideration, and if necessary, a hearing date/time in excess of 45 minutes will be provided.

Original motions and attachments shall be filed with the clerk's office before setting motions for hearing.

Do not set hearings and then not show up for them.
Too often, the court will set aside valuable court time for a special set hearing, only to have no one show up for the hearing. No one even has the courtesy to call, or file a notice of cancellation. This hearing time is then unavailable to other litigants.

Hearings in excess of 45 minutes will not be canceled unless:

(1) a notice of cancellation is filed at least five (5) business days before the hearing (if you intend to reset the motion for hearing); or
(2) a motion to continue is filed and set for a hearing based upon extraordinary and unforeseen grounds; or
(3) the movant waives the relief requested in writing; or

(4) a stipulation and order is submitted to the court for signature in which fully resolves the issue(s) (so that the hearing does not need to be reset); or
(5) the case is fully resolved by settlement or otherwise, prior to the hearing date.

Failure to follow this procedure may result in sanctions, including loss of the privilege to appear by telephone; restrictions on the ability to set and notice hearings without specific court approval; the entry of an order deeming the matter raised in the motion as waived; and for repeat offenders, referral to the Florida Bar. Setting hearings and not showing up for them might implicate Rules Regulating the Florida Bar, Rule 4-1.1, or Rule 4-1.3.

A copy of the motion, notice of hearing (the Notice of Hearing must include the Courthouse's address, the Courtroom "3-E", and the time reserved for the hearing), cover letter, signed by attorney, (pdf format) and the proposed order (word format) must be emailed in Word format to Foreclosure@circuit19.org, no later than 5 business days[*] prior to the scheduled hearing and the notice of hearing must be served on opposing counsel 5 business days prior to the scheduled hearing.

IF WE DO NOT HAVE THESE DOCUMENTS AT LEAST 5 BUSINESS DAYS[*] PRIOR TO THE HEARING[†], YOUR HEARING MAY NOT BE HELD AND YOU MAY BE REQUIRED TO RESCHEDULE.

Please refer to pages 2-4 of our procedures for the specific requirements and deadlines on Final Summary Judgments hearings that require more than 5 minutes.

DO NOT send envelopes to chambers, (the moving party will notice the parties) INSTEAD, please include the following language, under the service list, on the proposed order: (Follow instructions highlighted in yellow).

> A COPY OF THIS ORDER IS BEING SERVED ON THE FOLLOWING PARTIES VIA THE E-FILING PORTAL: (Include all parties with e-mail addresses).
> COUNSEL FOR (Insert the moving party, e.g. PLAINTIFF'S, DEFENDANT'S, etc.) SHALL SERVE A COPY OF THIS ORDER ON THE FOLLOWING PARTIES IMMEDIATELY AND FILE A CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE IN THIS COURT FILE: (Include parties that only have physical addresses).

[*] Please review the specific requirements for motions for summary judgment.

Pick and choose your fights wisely. Not every issue requires judicial intervention.

This is especially applicable to discovery disputes.* Litigants have an obligation to cooperate with respect to planning and executing discovery or resolving discovery disputes. A party cannot file a motion to compel with the court without first working cooperatively with the other party to resolve the dispute.

Any motion related to discovery (motions to compel, objections to discovery, motions for protective orders relating to discovery) must include a certification that the movant has in good faith conferred or attempted to confer with the party failing to act in an effort to obtain the answer or response without court action. In person or telephonic communications between the attorneys are preferred over written communications. See, Becker, Civility: A Rational Approach to Combat Discovery Abuse, Law Trends & News, Vol. 6, No. 1 (Fall 2009). https://www.americanbar.org/content/newsletter/publications/law_trends_news_practice_area_e_newsletter_home/09_fall_lit_feat1.html

The certification must include a description of the communications held or attempted in attempting to resolve the matter, including the date, time, and participants in each communication. The certification must be in the motion not on the notice of hearing. This applies to any motion or objection of any kind relating to discovery.

No discovery motion will be heard where the parties did not comply with the foregoing procedures. Repeated violations of these procedures may result in the imposition of sanctions.

* Judges and litigants now routinely describe modern discovery as a "morass," "nightmare," "quagmire," "monstrosity," and "fiasco." In 2008, the American College of Trial Lawyers ("ACTL") Task Force on Discovery joined with the Institute for the Advancement of the American Legal System ("IAALS") to survey members of the ACTL on the role of discovery and any perceived problems in the United States civil justice system. Nearly 1,500 ACTL members responded, speaking with an average thirty-eight years of experience in civil litigation and with nearly equal representation of plaintiffs and defendants. An overwhelming majority of the survey participants reported that discovery has become an end in itself---a costly weapon used to "bludgeon" parties into settlements. The participants commented that attorneys, rather than clients, "drive excessive discovery." Forty-five percent of them believed that discovery is abused in "almost every case," Participants complained that "we have sacrificed the prospect of attainable justice for the many in the interest of finding that one needle in the . . . haystacks," and that "the total lack of control of discovery . . . is killing civil litigation."

Rev. 513, 515; see also, Nicholls, A Proportional Response: Amending the Oregon Rules of Civil Procedure to Minimize Abusive Discovery Practices, 89 Or. L. Rev. 1445 (2011); Therrien, Talkin' "Bout a Revolution?: Utah Overhauls Its Rules of Civil Discovery, 2011 Utah L. Rev. 669 (2011).

Hearings may not be specially set until the motion is actually filed with the Clerk.

DEFENDANTS PRO-SE: If a pro-se party wishes to set a hearing on the online system, the pro-se party should request that the attorney on the other side of the case do so. The pro-se party should consult with the attorney to find a mutually agreeable time. If there is no attorney on the other side of the case, or if attorney does not agree to set a hearing, the pro-se party may contact our office for a hearing date.
